Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your letter dated 23 December 2016 and I apologise for the delay in replying.

I note my colleagues have reached agreement with you and your client with regards to the income for [REDACTED] and this does appear to have settled the situation as to your client's available funds for his personal living expenses and I have no further questions regarding this matter.

My one concern is that you have not answered the question regarding the potential rental income received by your client. I am however inclined to bring this case to a conclusion on the basis that if your client is found to have failed to notify any rental income for any year up to and including 2015 I will be leaving a note on the file advising that your client has had the opportunity to make the disclosure but has chosen not to at this time.

My enquiry is therefore concluded, a copy of this letter is being sent to your client for his information.

Whichever method you choose to contact us about this check, you need to quote the case reference [REDACTED] and any other references shown above. If you write you need to use the address shown above. If you send documents you must tell us if you want them returned as we may securely destroy them after 90 days.

Yours sincerely
